NON-MEDIA COMPANY CONVENTION SPONSORSHIP POLICY

1. No money will be accepted from domestic or foreign governments, or from partisan political organizations.
2. Non-media contributors will be disclosed to all convention attendees on a handout or program spread that also includes our sponsorship policy.
3. Specific portions of the convention must not be named after non-media companies with the exception of the venue.
4. SPJ will control all aspects of the convention program. All convention programs will be on-the-record. People and organizations with positions directly opposed to those of any contributor may be invited to appear.
5. Acceptance of any contribution does not imply endorsement of the contributor's products, service or point of view.
6. SPJ reserves a right of prior approval for any material available and presentations at all sponsored events.
7. SPJ reserves the right to reject any contribution.

Non-media organizations such as law firms with significant media practices, will be treated as media contributors for purpose of this policy if they have some record of pro bono work for journalists or frequent contributions to our programs.

Nothing in these rules prohibits the sale of advertising in any convention-related publication, including, but not limited to, the program, The Working Press and any special-issue magazine.
