

Historic Sites in Journalism

NOMINATION FORM

Historic Sites in Journalism honor individuals, news organizations and places of national historic interest. Nominations are open. Self-nomination is permitted.

SPJ selects honorees for the Historic Sites in Journalism designation. The recipients of the national honor will be recognized at a special event. A bronze plaque will be displayed at the location marking it as a Historic Site in Journalism. Only one Historic Site in Journalism may be selected in any given year.
