To our valued partners:

As we continue in our purpose of caring for all our guests and associates, a comprehensive guide about COVID-19 was shared with all Hyatt hotels globally, including Hyatt Regency New Orleans, that outlines how to protect against transmission of virus, preventative operational procedures, operational procedures should the virus be confirmed among a colleague or guest, and much more.

The following document outlines proactive measures and practices, in addition to our Hotel’s previous policies and procedures, which are being implemented in response to the COVID-19 crisis at Hyatt Regency New Orleans. This overview is simply designed to provide comfort to our guests and clients, setting general expectations for service throughout the property. Rest assured that the Hotel will undergo an extensive sanitization process prior to business resuming onsite.

The safety, health, and wellbeing of our colleagues and guests is our most important priority as we all work together through this challenging process. On behalf of the entire team at Hyatt Regency New Orleans, we appreciate your support and eagerly anticipate your return to our iconic property.
